agrees to use the Information designated as the TREC OpenSearch 2016 system and data subject to the following understandings, terms and conditions. These understandings, terms and conditions apply equally to all or to part of the Information.

Permitted Uses

The Information may only be used for research and development of natural language processing, information retrieval or document understanding systems.

1. It is not permitted to use the Information for any other purpose, especially any use for commercial or distribution purposes and to reproduce or commercialize or distribute for free in any form or by any means.
2. Summaries, analyses and interpretations of the linguistic properties of the Information may be derived and published, provided it is not possible to reconstruct the Information from these summaries.
3. Small excerpts of the Information may be displayed to others or published in a scientific or technical context, solely for the purpose of describing the research and development and related issues. Any such use shall not infringe on the rights of any third party including, but limited to, the authors and publishers of the excerpts.
4. Further distribution of this data, without explicit and written consent from the TREC OpenSearch 2016 organizers, is expressly prohibited.
5. Copies of any such publications using the challenge data or systems must be sent to the TREC OpenSearch 2016 organizers to trec-os-organizers@googlegroups.com.
6. The participating websites must not be referenced by name or URL in any publications using the challenge data or systems. They should instead be referenced by the corresponding use-case name, unless it is stated otherwise in the use-case specific terms and agreements.

7. It is prohibited to enter challenge queries into the search engines of the participating websites when the challenge is running.
8. In addition to the terms 1-7 stated in this general agreement, specific additional terms and conditions may apply to the individual use-cases as detailed on the challenge website (<http://trec-open-search.org>).

Own Assessment of Information Use

The person must make their own assessment of the suitability of the Information for its research and development purposes under Permitted Uses.

Agreement to Delete Data on Request

The person shall delete within thirty days of receiving notice all copies of any particular document or search result that is part of the Information whenever requested to do so by either:

1. The TREC OpenSearch 2016 organizers; or
2. the owner of copyright for the particular document or search result.
